

South Hall Homeschool Co-Op Family Registration Form

The purpose of South Hall Homeschool Co-Op (SHHC) is twofold: 1) to provide an opportunity for Christian homeschooling families in the local area to participate in enrichment educational activities in a cooperative environment, and 2) to serve as a support and resource group for those families.

SHHC Membership is based on the following:

- Adequate space to accommodate families in the Co-Op;
- A signed Participation Agreement;
- A signed acknowledgement of the SHHC's Statement of Faith;
- Payment of required Family Registration fee and individual class supply fees (as required).

In exchange for the benefits that membership in SHHC provides, members must do their best to fulfill with joy and excellence the responsibilities outlined in the Participation Agreement.
